AFTERNOON EDITION

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN-1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1888.GOVERNOR THANKS
BOYS BAND FOR IN-AUGURATION MUSICGovernor Morrow Says He Was Proud of Our Band and That Every One at the Inauguration Was Delighted With Their Music.

Governor Morrow is not ashamed of his selection of the Maysville Boys' Band to lead his inaugural parade and while he makes no pretensions at being a music critic, he says he is still proud of the band which he picked out as the best band in the state considering everything.

Business Manager J. Barbour Russell has just received this letter from the Governor:

Frankfort, December 13, 1919.
J. Barbour Russell,
Maysville, Kentucky.My Dear Barbour:
I want to you and by you to express to the Boys' Band of Maysville, my very deep appreciation for the services rendered me on the occasion of my inauguration.

I was very proud of the Band and every one was delighted with them. They made a very distinct hit. It was very splendid of them to come and very wonderful of you to show your very deep interest in their coming, and the success of the entire undertaking.

This required effort, energy and loss of time upon your part. I called Mr. Phythian up on my arrival in Frankfort and made arrangements for you and the Band to go through the penitentiary. I tried to get into communication with you, but do not know whether the message I sent reached you. I had many things upon my mind, and I hope you will overlook any short-coming upon my part in writing you.

Let me know when I can serve you in any way.
Sincerely,

EDWIN P. MORROW, Governor.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL TEAM PLANS SEASON

The Maysville High School basket ball team is now making arrangements for the 1919-20 season and already games have been booked with Paris, Newport, Portsmouth and Manchester. Several other games will be booked immediately and the season will open in a very short time.

Interest in roller skating continues and each evening the Princess Skating Rink is well filled with young as well as old. There will be some extra features on the program at the rink during the next few days.

DR. DODSON IS OUSTED
BY CITY COUNCILMENCouncil-elect From Third Ward Is Found to Be Ineligible For Seat
In Council and Mr. J. D. Keith
Is Elected in His Stead.

After many meetings, the members of the City Council finally ousted Dr. J. A. Dodson from the body on Monday evening following a committee meeting of Council of the whole which had investigated the case and which had found, under the proof offered, that Mr. Dodson had not been a resident of the Third Ward long enough to make him eligible to the seat in council to which the majority of the voters of his ward had elected him by an unquestionable plurality.

When the committee returned to the council chamber from the committee room, Dr. Dodson addressed them stating that he did not desire to take the matter into the courts and that he did not desire to cause his friends any more trouble. He then offered his resignation relinquishing any rights that he might have to sit in council.

It was later ruled that as council had not been called in regular form and was still in committee when Dr. Dodson offered his resignation, it had not been duly offered to council and his statement was disregarded.

The report of the committee was filed and ordered recorded and a vacancy was duly declared and Mr. John Dudley Koth was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

SCHUMACHER INQUEST MAY BE HELD TOMORROW

Coroner Thomas Higgins is now preparing to hold the formal inquest into the death of Ben Schumacher, the murdered night watchman at the Maysville Cotton Mills. The Coroner has been holding up the inquest pending the investigation of the case by Chief of Police Harry A. Ort. The Chief has been very busy on the case for the past two weeks and will probably be ready for the inquest Wednesday or Thursday.

ANNUAL TAX NOTICE IS ISSUED TODAY

All city licenses expire with the last day of December and in another part of today's issue there appears for the first time the formal city tax notice. Under the new city tax ordinance passed by council several weeks ago, there are many new forms of business that are required to pay city taxes and those who are not quite certain about their status, should look over this notice carefully to see if they are required to pay city taxes this year.

FARMERS WEEK AT UNIVERSITY TO BE BIG THING THIS YEARExtensive Plans Are Being Made For the Celebration of Farmers' Week
Beginning January 27—Many Local Farmers Always Attend.

Talks by agricultural experts, judging contests, meetings of various State organizations, these and other features make up the program for the eighth annual Farmers' Week, which will be held at the University of Kentucky from January 27 to 30, inclusive.

The event is being advertised over the State by literature sent broadcast and by notices appearing in various newspapers of Kentucky. Those in charge of the program expect between 1,000 and 1,500 farmers to be in attendance.

Sessions of the State organizations that will hold exhibits during Farmers' Week will be held in the various buildings of the University of Kentucky and at the stock-judging pavilion. Organizations that will hold annual meetings are: Kentucky Horse and Jack Breeders' Association, Tuesday, January 27; Kentucky Sheep Breeders' Association, Wednesday, January 28; Alfalfa Growers' Association, Wednesday, January 28; Kentucky Dairy Cattle Association, Thursday, January 29; Kentucky Beef Cattle Association, Thursday, January 29; Kentucky Poultry Association, Friday, January 30, and the Kentucky Swine Breeders' Association, Friday, January 30.

Every morning at 11:30 o'clock during the week all organizations will hold a general meeting, either in the university chapel or in the stock-judging pavilion. At each of these meetings a prominent agriculturist will be present to lecture the farmers on some subject of timely interest.

President Frank L. McVey, of the University of Kentucky, and Thomas P. Cooper, dean of the college of agriculture, will deliver addresses of welcome at the opening of the various organizations' meetings.

One of the features of the event will be a beef cattle judging contest as to the steers will dress out. It is planned to give prizes to the successful competitors.

The "better sires — better stock" campaign of the Department of Agriculture will be explained at this time. There will be an exhibition three steers as follows:

A prime purebred Hereford bullock, a high-grade Shorthorn and a common rough steer. They will be judged on foot and then killed to find out which dresses out the most meat. The purebred represents the highest results in using purebred animals, the Shorthorn shows good results that can be obtained by crossing a scrub cow with a pure-bred bull, and the common rough steer is an example of the common kind of steer which the farmer cannot afford to raise, according to experiments conducted by the department of animal husbandry.

The animals will be slaughtered by students of the college of agriculture in the meat under the direction of E. J. Wilhoit, instructor in meats. The carcasses will be put on exhibition and the quality of the meat will be discussed by some man who has made a lifetime study of the subject.

A Southdown wether will be donated by the Experiment Station to be killed and the mutton served to members of the Kentucky Sheep Breeders' Association. The mutton will be prepared and served under the direction of Miss Mary E. Sweeney, head of the department of home economics.

One of the features of Farmers' Week will be the program of the poultry department, "Kentucky's Queen", a White Leghorn hen sired by Sir Egantine, which has laid 260 eggs in her pullet year, will be on exhibition. Talks will be made by A. G. Phillips, head of the department of poultry, Indiana Experiment Station, and by H. C. Pierce, Harrodsburg, formerly connected with the United States Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Phillips will speak on the subject, "The Possibilities of the Farm Flock," and Mr. Pierce will talk on "Kentucky's Poultry Opportunities."

KENTUCKY DISTILLERS ARE HARD HIT BY DECISION

Distillers in Kentucky Will Lose Millions of Dollars as Result of Supreme Court Decision.

Louisville, Ky., December 16—Kentucky distillers and more than 300 Louisville former saloonkeepers were joined by yesterday's decision of the Supreme Court holding wartime prohibition unconstitutional.

The distillers, it was estimated, had 39,000,000 gallons of whiskey in Kentucky bonded warehouses, 9,500,000 gallons of it in Louisville alone, ordinarily worth at wholesale $400,000,000. The former saloonkeepers, after setting the stage for a "wet" period, continued the sale of soft drinks while the distillers, with exportation apparently the only avenue open to them, flocked to the custom house for export stamps.

One distiller, manufacturer of a famous brand, apparently expressing majority opinion, said he intended to keep his stock of 35,000 barrels in bonded warehouses and "see what will happen."

Meantime, in view of the Supreme Court's decision today, Louisville distillers and wholesale whisky dealers who recently disposed of large quantities of liquor under protection of federal court injunctions are being scheduled to fresh scrutiny of District Attorney Gregory with a view to probable prosecution on charges of violating the wartime prohibition law.

EX-COVT IS ACCUSED OF FORGING MRS. BLACK'S NAME

Frankfort, Ky., December 16—Jeff Harris, an ex-convict and employee of the Governor's residence, was arrested today on the charge of forging the name of Mrs. James D. Black to a check for $486.

Governor Black discovered the alleged forgery after returning to his home at Barbourville. The check was drawn in favor of Walter Johnson of the John D. Black bank of Barbourville and cashed by the State National Bank of this city.

Harris did much of the buying of groceries for the Governor's residence and in that way learned the handwriting of Mrs. Black. He was an employee of the mansion when Governor Black became Governor. He was pardoned by Governor Stanley, and employed by him.
